The Voice of Integrity & Ethics in Publishing

PIE Exercise

Question 7 out of 15

The publisher submitted a complaint against an author about a plagiarism related issue. While the PIE Council investigates the case, what should he do?

- If a complaint was submitted and accepted by the Council, the complainant should wait for the PIE resolution and comply with it. ✔
- The publisher should hire a lawyer and seek legal representation in the case that the PIE resolution will not please him. ✘
- The publisher should contact third parties and inform them about the author's misconduct. ✘
- The publisher should reject any other article submitted by the respondent author. ✘

Correct answer is A. If a complaint was submitted and accepted by the Council, the complainant should wait for the PIE resolution and comply with it.
